A. FTEs from full-time employees. Number of full-time employees working on average 30 hours or more a week (or 130 hours a month) for more than 120 days a year (even if they are not eligible or enrolling for health coverage).

(Add up the total number of hours worked in a week by part-time employees and divide by 30.) Example: 10 employees working 20 hours a week: 200 ÷ 30 = 6.66 = 6 (rounding down to the nearest whole number)
C. Total number of FTEs = A + B.

Count the number of employees for each month 2. Add each month's total to get an annual total 3. Divide the annual total by 12 (or divide by the number of months you had employees). 4. - I understand that by December first of each year, Aetna will notify Aetna Medicare members of all benefit and premium changes effective as of January first of the following calendar year.

EMPLOYER ACKNOWLEDGMENT – Employer waiting period

The Affordable Care Act and subsequent federal regulations prohibit group health plans and health insurance issuers from requiring any eligible plan participants and beneficiaries (employees and dependents) to wait no more than 90 days before their health coverage goes into effect.

- The regulations define the group health plan as the Employer or plan administrator.
- The regulations define the issuer as the insurance company.
- Since the requirement applies to both the group health plan and the issuer, each party's obligation is satisfied if the 90 day waiting period is honored. However, if either party doesn't comply, both are subject to a penalty.
- I agree to provide the following information of the plan participants and beneficiaries to Aetna:
  - Effective date information
  - Eligibility
  - Waiting period required under federal law
- Aetna will use the information provided by the employer to enroll plan participants and beneficiaries in the employer's group health insurance coverage. In the event this information changes, the employer shall inform Aetna immediately.

Any hard copy records generated pursuant to this provision shall meet reasonable standards of availability, authenticity, non-repudiation and integrity.
3. I agree that all enrollment and eligibility information presented to Aetna is accurate and timely updated. I acknowledge that Aetna can and will rely on such information in determining whether an individual is eligible for benefits under the plan.
